

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

We are writing today to ask you for your vote and support for attorney Jarad Kent, who is running to become the next judge of the 114th District Court of Smith County.

As you know, Smith County has established itself as the medical heart of East Texas. Our hospitals, doctors, and other healthcare professionals serve people from all over the area. The number of providers and types of services offered continue to grow. We need judges who understand the complexities of healthcare and have experience in healthcare law.

In his 11 years as a practicing attorney, healthcare litigation has been a core focus of Jarad's legal practice. He has represented doctors, hospitals, and nurses across the state in a variety of legal matters, and has helped educate healthcare providers on the complexities of the laws applicable to our industry. Throughout his career, Jarad has tried cases for surgeons, orthopedic surgeons, primary care physicians, hospitals, nurses, and other healthcare providers. In addition, he has provided counsel and comfort to countless healthcare professionals during some of the most difficult moments of their careers.

Healthcare law is complex. Too often, healthcare providers across this state have their cases heard by judges who have never handled a healthcare liability case. As Smith County continues to grow as the medical heart of East Texas, we believe having a judge that can fairly and knowledgeably handle these cases is important.

As your colleagues in the medical community, we wholeheartedly believe Jarad Kent deserves our support. His expertise in healthcare law will be an invaluable asset to Smith County, its citizens, and medical providers. We ask you to join us in electing him in the Republican March 3, 2020 primary and then on November 3, 2020 in the general election.
